

What do you get?

Home

Google Workspace 11 files ago · 22 revisions

Welcome to the starter-kit wiki!

The R-Ladies is a fast-growing community and there is probably an active group in your area, here listed at the list of current chapters. If an R-Ladies group already exists in your city, feel free to get in touch with the organizers. If not, follow the instructions below to set up a brand new R-Ladies chapter in your area.

Step-by-step guide:

1. Check current chapters.
2. Wish to join the R-Ladies community of organizers? Check out tech infrastructure for chapters.
3. Here are few suggestions to organize events.
4. Make sure you read and comply with our code of conduct.
5. Have a look at our centralised resources and check how you can contribute to R-Ladies repositories.
6. Claiming expenses.
7. Further ideas.

Rules and Guidelines

Please, take a look on the global Rules and Guidelines document.

1) Starter-Kit

- Tech Infrastructure
- Tips on how to organize events
- Code of Conduct (En/Spanish)

2) @rladies.org email

3) Organizer slack channel

4) Shared training material

5) Financial support to cover meetup registration/renewal fees!

And there is more!

YOU WILL:

- be part of an incredible family
- learn a lot (not onlyR)!
- have unlimited support
- meet other R-Ladies

+ MUCH MORE!